The biggest fortune is sometimes very small

Who would have thought? “learning makes you happy”, but this is what the latest brain research¹ tells us. So that “saving” also makes you happy, we are offering our online training for a very low (affordable?) price. All of our experience of over 50 years of language training is in this program. Our eMentor makes sure that high quality and low price are complementary. He will be a mentor and will guide you on your path to you achieving your language goals. The largest investment you will need to make is time and motivation.

Learn as much as you want, for the price of a trip to the cinema!

If you invest just a bit more, we will make the world available to you. Meet and talk to people from across the world about subjects that are interesting to you in our online conversation courses.

Don't let your language training be a burden, it should be a challenge. We will work together with you to help you achieve your targets. Of course our language courses are according to the "Common European Framework of Reference for Languages \(CEFR\)".

In addition you receive a certificate upon course completion.
